Sixth Tie-ISB Connect to start from October 22

HYDERABAD: Most venture capitalists are opting to stay longer in companies after the global meltdown. This could probably enhance their returns, even as valuations are reckoned to be more realistic now, said Sateesh Andhra, convenor, The Indus Entrepreneurs (TIE)-Indian School of Business (ISB) Connect. The sixth edition of Tie-ISB Connect, an initiative to for entrepreneurs to find strategic partners and investors, will commence on October 22.
